Ukip demands police action to arrest so-called 'anti-racist' protestors

Janice Atkinson, as Ukip SE chairman, and MEP candidate, jointly with colleagues Patricia Culligan and Alan Stevens, MEP candidates, have raised concerns about the way the police will deal with the protestors at the Hove Ukip public meeting, on Tuesday, 13th May to be held in the Jewish Hall.

They have formally asked the chief constable to arrest any protestors who call our supporters 'fascists', hurl other abuse or any physical assault, for 'hate crime' or under the public order act.

So-called 'anti-racist' groups such as Unite Against Fascism and Hope not Hate are taxpayer funded bodies and sponsored by senior Labour figures through the trade union movement. They are deliberately targeting Ukip, its supporters and elected officials to deliberately intimidate and stop democracy.

Ukip is the third party of politics, has 100s of councillors, is expected to come top in the European elections and should not be intimidated by state funded rabble rousers.

We therefore call on the police to confirm that they will prosecute under 'hate crime' any individual or group who seeks to intimidate our supporters and candidates or at least under the Public Order offence under Section 4, 4A or 5 of the 1986 Public Order Act.
